- Tips on how not to go back to the abused situation.
- Rebuild confidence, resilience, and self-worth
- Develop life skills and independence
- Break cycles of harm and reclaim safety and aspiration

You will also have the opportunity to work alongside statutory and voluntary partners, advocate for survivors, and contribute to safeguarding and outcome reporting.

What You'll Do

- Deliver 1:1 coaching to women or girls or group coaching
- Support women and girls during crisis and resettlement
- Create personalised development plans
- Maintain accurate case notes and data
- Uphold safeguarding, confidentiality, and ethical practice

What We're Looking For

Essential

- Level 5 Coaching Qualification (or above) or equivalent experience
- Direct experience coaching women or girls affected by domestic abuse
- Strong understanding of trauma, safeguarding, and risk
- Enhanced DBS (or ability to obtain immediately)
- Personal liability insurance
- Excellent communication skills and emotional intelligence
- Ability to work independently and within multi-agency teams

Desirable

- Experience in refuges, housing, or community settings
- To be able to detach and manage your wellbeing

- Case conference experience
- Professional coaching membership
- Knowledge of multi-agency safeguarding
- Lived experience (with appropriate boundaries)

What We Offer

- Paid, meaningful sessional work
- Induction, specialist training, and supervision
- Ongoing opportunities as ISN expands
- A supportive, values-led organisation
- The chance to be part of a growing network of specialist coaches

Recruitment – Rolling Applications

This role is open for ongoing recruitment. Applications are reviewed as they are received, and interviews may take place before the closing date. We reserve the right to close early once sufficient associates are appointed. All roles are subject to references, enhanced DBS, and safeguarding checks.
